

Maggie Osterberg

BAND STORY

"Maggie Osterberg is an American guitar player, keyboardist, and songwriter. Her first album Bent, Not Broken, was released in July, 2005, and is available at the iTunes Music Store. Her work ranges from electronica and avant-garde to alt-rock, indie pop, and psychedelia. Maggie was born in Omaha, Nebraska, and now lives in Lincoln, after a number of years in the Twin Cities and San Francisco.

Maggie attended Grinnell College, Kearny State College, and Minneapolis College of Art and Design, and holds a bachelor's degree in Theatre from Hamline University.

Fans have compared her guitar playing to Nels Cline and Robert Quine, with an overall musical style that encompasses the world of the Velvet Underground, Television, Talking Heads, and kraut-rockers Can. Maggie is a big fan of Frank Zappa, Neil Young, and Tom Waits. When she's not making or listening to music, Maggie enjoys photography, reading, walking, and cats. Many of her photos can be found on Flickr, and her recent reading includes Michael Pollan's The Omnivore's Dilemma, Bill Buford's Heat, and Roger Welsch's My Nebraska. Among her recommendations for writing on music are Simon Reynolds' Rip it Up and Start Again: Postpunk 1978-1984, Clinton Heylin's From the Velvets to the Voidoids: A Pre-Punk History for a Post-Punk World, and Jim DeRogatis' Staring at Sound: The True Story of Oklahoma's Fabulous Flaming Lips.

STATS

Visits	Plays
55,443	18,203
Streams	Downloads
8,457	9,746

Featured Songs

-  Stratotone Demo with Vibro Champ Indie
-  Malekko 600D and Thermosnic Demo Indie

LATEST NEWS

NEW EP: "Empty Mount"

Empty Mount, the new EP by Maggie Osterberg is now

Empty Mount, the new EP by Maggie Osterberg is now streaming at Last.FM! Listen to the entire EP and download three songs by clicking below:

Empty Mount

UPDATES!!!

The Jamroom software that runs my site is being updated, so a few links and features might not be in perfect working order, but stick around, as things are going to get MUCH BETTER!!!

For additional information please contact us
©2018 MacIDOL